

ISWB Bulletin Board

12 July 2019

We at ISWB are exceptionally fortunate to have parents who do not shy away from shouldering their responsibilities and who are innovative and reliable as was the case during the organisation, preparation and support of the

International Day

The stalls looked amazing, the food was delicious and the team work outstanding

To only say thank you to each and everyone who contributed to make the ISWB International Day the roaring success it turned out to be, seems hopelessly inadequate and does not reflect the thankfulness and appreciation that we truly feel.

We only have words to express our heartfelt gratitude and thus we would like to say

Thank you, thank you, and thank you!
